PROGRAMS & EXHIBITS

OCTOBER ~ DECEMBER 2015

Presented by

CITY OF RANCHO MIRAGE PUBLIC LIBRARY

RANCHO MIRAGE PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION
Welcome to the Rancho Mirage Public Library…

With Autumn comes our annual welcome to another great Library programming season. Please consider this booklet to be your invitation to a wide range of events that will inform, entertain, and often surprise you.

The Library Community Room will be the location for most of the events described within this publication. We hope you agree that all of our programs are noteworthy, but a few stand out:

We give attention to the Salton Sea twice during this quarter. First, on Thursday, October 8, Scott White will offer an update on the Sea and efforts to assure its positive future. Later, in November, we welcome Kurt Leuschner to present his lecture, “Winged Wonders of the Salton Sea.”

Christopher Perry, a Library favorite, will present Buster Keaton’s silent classic, The General (1926), as never shown before in our Desert with live music and sound effects, taking place on Wednesday, November 4.

More film screenings make up our calendar: In celebration of the Centennial of Frank Sinatra’s birth, film historian and presenter Jason Bruecks offers four of Sinatra’s best films, on four consecutive Monday afternoons in November.

A full calendar follows. We hope you will join us for all the possibilities of lifelong learning in our Community Room, where we never stop “celebrating ideas!”

David Bryant
Library Director

Note: This schedule has been prepared with careful consideration to availability of talent and the Library’s Community Room. However, unforeseen circumstances may arise which could alter the schedule contained in these pages. Additional programs may be added as well. Changes are announced promptly on the Library’s website, ranchomiragelibrary.org. The website is always worth a visit to get the latest information about your Rancho Mirage Public Library.

People with disabilities are encouraged to attend Library programs. If you have special communication or access needs, please contact the Library at (760) 341-7323 four business days in advance of the event(s) you will attend.

You may choose to name a book, a favorite subject area, or a series of events. You might consider naming a Library chair, a Library space, or something special for children in the Library.

Please contact our Library Director, David Bryant, at 760-341-7323, ext. 700 with any questions about the Foundation’s Literary Legacy program. The Foundation is excited to offer new naming opportunities that will enhance the Library’s ability to serve as a vital community resource. You will become an enduring part of your Library, a place which welcomes all and stands as a cultural icon in the Desert.

Scott White came to the CVB in late 2010, following four years as the Executive Director of the San Antonio Convention & Visitors Bureau, and eight years at the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau. Nicholas Clapp
Tuesday, October 13, 2 – 3 p.m.
Old Magic: Lives of the Desert Shamans

For nearly one thousand generations, desert shamans of the far West sought order in the stars and in the mysteries of their grand, unforgiving landscape. They epitomized a Native American ability “to relate to the land in ways beyond a Western way of thinking.” Drawing on the lore of a dozen tribes, “Old Magic” conjures the year-to-year life of a shaman—a life of service to his people, a life fraught with torment and danger, a life often taking a man or woman to the edge of madness.

Documentary filmmaker Nicholas Clapp has explored, filmed, and written about the deserts of the world. He has won over seventy major awards for his documentary work. He lived with the Zapotecs of southern Mexico, participated in the excavation of the Great Temple of Petra in Jordan, and was leader of a team that discovered the lost city of Ubar in the Sultanate of Oman.
Kurt Leuschner
Tuesday, November 10, 2 – 3 p.m.
Winged Wonders of the Salton Sea
The Salton Sea is one of the most important stops for birds traveling the Pacific Flyway. Tens of thousands of birds begin arriving in late September. Birds that overwinter at the Sea will depart by May, but some will remain to brave the hot summer and nest at the sea. Because of this, visiting the Salton Sea at any time of year is a birdwatcher’s delight. Follow up the talk with an all-day journey in January to see the Salton Sea and all of its wonders!

Kurt Leuschner is a Professor of Natural Resources at College of the Desert, where he teaches courses on Conservation, Entomology, Field Ornithology, Native Plants, and GPS Navigation. He also teaches weekend courses and workshops on birdwatching, insects, GPS, and backyard habitats for UCR Extension, the Desert Institute, the Desert Studies Center, and The Living Desert.

Nancy Sindelar, Ph.D.
Tuesday, November 24, 2 – 3 p.m.
Ernest Hemingway: A Visit to Papa’s Places
Join Nancy W. Sindelar, Ph.D., as she gives the first lecture in a four-part series on Ernest Hemingway. In this presentation, she takes you on a tour of the places where the author lived and worked: Oak Park, Paris, Chamby, Key West, San Francisco de Paula, and Ketchum. Ponder the impact and influence these places had on the life and work of this legendary author. Then stay tuned for three more lectures in early 2016!

Nancy W. Sindelar is the author of Influencing Hemingway: The People and Places that Shaped His Life and Work. She has made many presentations about the life and work of Ernest Hemingway, and these presentations are energized by her passion and her research into his private letters, fiction, and non-fiction.
Christopher Perry Presents The General

Wednesday, November 4, 6 – 8:30 p.m.

_The General_ is considered Buster Keaton’s true masterpiece and is one of the greatest films from the silent era. This comedy, set during the Civil War, was based on a true story and features the most expensive comedy gag of the silent era. Christopher Perry and The Photoplay Ensemble presents this film with live music and sound effects so that you can experience the movie the way it was originally intended.

Christopher Perry, musical director for the Ensemble, arranges silent movie scores by using the original film music cues written for these classic pictures. The “Mad Doctor of Sound Effects” Henry Lozano provides the sound effects, created with mechanical devices—the same way they were created in the silent film era.
